

Two-Column Response Journal

Directions: Use this page for responses as you read. On the left side, copy quotations from the text. Choose sentences or passages that have particular meaning to you, that make you wonder about something, or anything else that strikes you and to which you wish to respond.

In the right column, next to each quotation, write your response. You may interpret the quotation, relate it to your own life, ask questions, evaluate it, comment on the writing style, or make any other kind of response.
